Albizu University International Student Compliance Form

STUDENT INSTRUCTIONS: International students holding F-1 visas must comply with U.S. government immigration regulations in order to maintain their legal status. Failure to follow these regulations could result in the F-1 status being terminated. The list below outlines the primary responsibilities of international students for maintaining legal status in the United States while studying at Albizu University. Please review it and then sign to certify that you understand the contents. Return the completed form to the International Student Office. After you submit the form, an Albizu University representative will sign it.

As an international student, you must:

1. Maintain up-to-date copies of all documents related to your F-1 visa, including your passport (valid for at least the upcoming six months) and your Form I-20.
2. Ensure that up-to-date personal information (such as your email address, phone number, mailing address, and academic major or program) is listed in both the Albizu and SEVIS systems at all times.
3. Remain enrolled in a degree-seeking program and make satisfactory academic progress toward completion of that program.
4. Remain enrolled full-time (at least 12 credit hours for undergraduates and 9 credit hours for graduate students) unless authorized in advance to take a reduced course load.
5. Enroll only in on-campus courses unless you have prior approval from your PDSO or DSO to take a distance education (online, hybrid, or independent) class. (Note that the ESOL program does not qualify as distance education.)
6. Maintain valid health insurance for the duration of your program and ensure that an up-to-date copy of the policy is on file at Albizu.
7. Submit extension requests no later than 45 days before the expiration of your Form I-20.
8. Depart the United States within 60 days of the completion of your academic program.
9. Ensure that there is a valid travel signature/endorsement on your Form I-20 before leaving or reentering the United States.
